EU & UK Client's Feedback

Building and running an ISMS up to the ISO 27001 certification is always a new challenge, as every context is different. We, at DefensePoint chose TopCertifier for their good reputation and we were not disappointed. Their offer was clear, their optional Gap Analysis was much useful for us, as it is always good to have an external opinion in such a certification journey. More importantly they proved to be very professional and while of course strictly following the rules of the ISO 27001 and ISO audits, they also proved to be adaptable to our specific context, which is a key aspect of this kind of norms and projects, especially as DefensePoint is a small but fast growing and agile Information Security company. We are glad to have started working with TopCertifier on our first ISO 27001 certification cycle, and probably the next ones.
